COL. THEODORE ROOSEVELT IS DEAD

Former President Passes Peacefully from Earth While Asleep at His Home on Sagamore Hill at an Early Morning Hour

HIS LAST DAY IS SPENT IN READING AND WRITING

Returned to Oyster Bay from Hospital on Christmas Day; Was Thought to Be Recovering from Attack of Illness

RISKED DEATH ON FRONTIERS IN WAR WITH SPAIN

Funeral Wednesday at the Home and at Church Attended by Him; Burial in Lot of His Own Selection.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Jan. 6—President Roosevelt, the ex-president of the United States, died in his home at Sagamore Hill at 4:15 this morning.

The famous American, exponent of the Roosevelt School of thought, was a soldier in the Spanish-American War and was wounded in the leg by a grenade and business leader of his home state, New York.

Roosevelt was born in New York City on Oct. 27, 1858. He was educated in the public schools of the city and was graduated at Harvard College in 1878. He practiced law for some years and was later elected to Congress from New York. He was governor of New York from 1884 to 1886. He served as assistant secretary of the navy from 1896 to 1898, then secretary of the navy, and later assistant secretary of war. He was a prominent soldier in the Spanish-American War and was wounded in the leg by a grenade.

Roosevelt was married to John Hay and had three sons, Kermit, Archibald, and Quentin. He was a member of the Republican Party and served as governor of New York from 1884 to 1886. He was elected to Congress from New York in 1887 and served until 1899. He was assistant secretary of the navy from 1896 to 1898 and secretary of the navy from 1898 to 1901. He was a prominent soldier in the Spanish-American War and was wounded in the leg by a grenade.

Roosevelt was a prominent leader in the Republican Party and was a leader in the progressive movement. He was a member of the Republican Party and served as governor of New York from 1884 to 1886. He was elected to Congress from New York in 1887 and served until 1899. He was assistant secretary of the navy from 1896 to 1898 and secretary of the navy from 1898 to 1901. He was a prominent soldier in the Spanish-American War and was wounded in the leg by a grenade.

The president will be buried in his lot at Sagamore Hill. The casket will be carried into the home and then into the church. The services will be held at the home of his daughter. The burial will be at the home of his son. The services will be held at the home of his son and at the church. The burial will be at the home of his son.

BLOOD CLot CAUSES ROOSEVELT'S DEATH

Nalley death without pain. Medical men never had surgical operation. Corliss Young Man is Wounded in Action Over in the War Zone.

America's Best Known Citizen Expires at His Home Early Today

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6 (AP)—The death of President Roosevelt was reported early this morning. He passed away at 4:15 a.m. at his home on Sagamore Hill after a brief illness. He was 60 years old.

Roosevelt had been in poor health for some time and had been confined to his home since Christmas Day.

The body will be taken to the White House for public viewing.

WILSON SAYS WORKERS MUST BE CONSIDERED IN FIXING PEACE TERMS

In his address at Milan President declares that Social System of the World Rests Upon the Working Classes.

GIVEN FREEDOM OF HISTORIC CITY BY ITS MAYOR

MILAN, Italy, Jan. 6—President Wilson yesterday gave the historic city of Milan a new face by declaring that workers must be considered in fixing peace terms.

He said that the workers of the world would decide the terms of peace in the future. He added that the workers of the world would be free to decide the future of the world in the peace conference.

Only one new face in County Offices.

The new face in county offices is a most welcome addition to the list of county officers. It is a face that is sure to bring peace and prosperity to the county.

Cable Roosevelt's Death to Wilson

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6 (AP)—President Wilson received the news of the death of President Roosevelt with deep sorrow. He sent a cable to the White House expressing his sympathy to Mrs. Roosevelt and to the family of the late president.

Wilson's Cable

President Wilson's cable to Mrs. Roosevelt and the family of the late president reads as follows: “Sincere sympathy in your great sorrow. The nation mourns with you. Your husband and his devoted friends will be deeply missed.”